

Sega is in the news this week, not just for changing their stance on emulators related games, but for a major document leak-- of old things from the 90s. While document leaks can be a slippery slope of information, it does give interesting insight to the console wars of decades past, and our hosts reflect on these old console wars, and how they've evolved quite a bit in today's gaming landscape. Not just Sega but many more companies make up our news this week on another episode of the longest running video game podcast, Orange Lounge Radio!

Also in the News:

* Far Cry Source Code Leaks

* Pokemon Sleep Info

* Taito Laserdisc Collection

* Yuji Naka gets Prison Sentence

All this and more on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice-- Orange Lounge Radio!
