Join us LIVE at 7PM Pacific / 10PM Eastern tonight (Wednesday) for our second and final special E3 coverage/podcast. We will be teaming up with our broadcasting pal Bobby Blackwolf, and of course taking your calls and chat comments as always for this special E3 podcast.

Please note this presentation is audio only. The absence of video is intended.

The show has ended, but for those that missed it, don't worry, the podcast will be up soon!

Programming note: These E3 podcasts will take the place of our "normal" June 12th show, there will be no live show/podcast on June 12th. We return LIVE on June 19th at our regular time and home.
