

Rest in peace, Shermie

Written by skie

Tuesday, 16 October 2012 16:56 -

It is with tremendous sadness that we report that Shermie the Kitty passed away early this morning of natural kitty causes. As DarkSakura was her mommy, Shermie was a mascot of sorts for Orange Lounge Radio. Shermie was most often heard on the show during the years the show was taped at DarkSakura's house. She will be remembered for her purrs and mews that could sometimes be audibly heard on the show while she rested at Rob's feet during many broadcasts of the show. In one of her most infamous show moments, Shermie made her own review of the Playstation Network show "The Tester" while the hosts were discussing it. She was 14 years old. RIP