One of the interesting things I forgot to mention in my GF/dm writeup, was that sometimes songs from the early games would get 'remixed' into new long versions, which are almost entirely new songs, but with similar rhythms.

Magic Music Magic was the earlier track, which was eventually remixed into the long version song, Let Me Believe, with new vocals by Brenda Vaughn. They're both pretty rocking tracks, worth at least checking out if you can find a mix that still has them!
