(blah blah blah copyright blah blah... you know the drill, sorry!)

An 'I Love That Song!' article about a music game song? DT must be back in town! See I can read your mind.

One of the brand new songs featured in the somewhat recent installment, beatmania IIDX 14 GOLD GOLD RUSH was probably one of the most memorable ones. An extended version of the title screen's music, this song also featured some of the greatest english lyrics ever, and for whatever reason it named off all the IIDX incarnations up to this point.

Interestingly there were four different incarnations of this song: the IIDX original, a version that appeared in Pop'n Music 18: SENGOKU RETSUDEN, and two alternate versions that appeared in DDR X2 AC. To check each of those out, hit the jump below!
