Hey all I've been updating the website for a while now but haven't really introduced myself.

I'm Deacon but I go by the web handle Deekman. I'm 23, Australian and live in Canada. I'm married to my beautiful wife Erika (kikineko) and have one daughter with a second baby on the way. I grew up playing mostly the Sega consoles and PC but have a love of all video games, except racing and sports.

I've been listening to OLR for about 4 years now and it's been a huge influence on my gaming choices and sense of humour. When the chance came up to redesign the website I figured I'd take a shot at it and this is what we got. Skie offered me a job updating the site by writing content so I thought "Sure, why not." and here I am.

Favorite game series: Banjo-Kazooie or Myst

Favorite classic game: Quackshot
