Zelda: Tears of the Kingdom kicked off this last weekend, and many gamers are diving right into the game, and enjoying their experiences. The game holds one of the highest critic aggregate scores of all time. However, that doesn't prevent some from having a more tepid, perceived as some as negative, take on the game. Is this just click bait, or are there reasons some might not be as impressed with the game? We dive into the reactions of our listeners and live participating chatters to get first impressions on this first mega title of the summer. All this, our gaming weeks, and much more round out another episode of the longest running video game podcast, Orange Lounge Radio!
