

The Game Awards happened this last week, and with it plenty of game announcements and, a few awards as well. However, some online are complaining amount the amount of award speech content vs. trailer and hype content. Does the Game Awards need to make some adjustments, or do people need to support other award shows if they want to see more award content here? We discuss this as well as some commentary on game awards vs. film awards. All of this and much more news round out another week of the longest running video game podcast, Orange Lounge Radio!

Also in the News:

* GTA VI Trailer Released

* Gold Master 002 is Llamasoft Collection

* Nintendo Cancels Live Event in Japan

* Lawsuit Filed About Game Addiction
