Oh yeah it might be if it messes with the flash ROM too. Bad form or just desserts for the pirates? We try to cover all the sides with the help of our live chatters. In Part B tonight, our rapid fire news includes news on what might have been DLC for Mortal Kombat VS. DC Universe ... and WAIT PLEASE for your darn kid icarus game. We get back into long topics including everyones favorite topic... NUDITY! All this and more including your chatroom antics, phone calls on our skypeline and letters to our e-mailbag on the video game show where every gamer has a voice: Orange Lounge Radio!
