Retro is new again with announcements of a new multi-platform Sonic the Hedgehog game as well as a new Blaster Master game for the Wii! However, sometimes it is time to let go of the old, as Halo 2 players will be learning in April when XBOX Live shuts down for the original XBOX. Facebook has an FPS coming, and will our iPhones soon play a part of World of Warcraft? We talk about all the latest in gaming LIVE on this Super Bowl Sunday. We do not slow down for any football game in Part B, as the news keeps coming, with discussion on the "new" Sega Zone console. Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy are licensed yet again for video games, but our hosts think they have a good new idea on how these game shows should be made into video games. Speculation runs wild when we talk about Harmonix licensing some very non-rock sorts of songs. What could it all mean? All this and MORE including our live phone calls, chatroom antics, twitter topics and so much more on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice- Orange Lounge Radio!
