

Kinect Release information, Street Fighter X Tekken (and vice versa), Indie Games on Playstation Home, Rock Band 3 release info, Marvel vs. Capcom updates, Southpeak and Majesco lawsuit and Phantasy Star Universe updates all this week on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice - Orange Lounge Radio!

There is a surprising amount of gaming news coming out of comic-con this week, including one crossover fighter we were surprised to see: Street Fighter X Tekken. Of course, should this news be that surprising at all or was there hints about the games existence in the past? We jump into the evidence. Also, this week we revive a years old debate towards the end of our show-- is the controller better, or the keyboard and mouse better? You might be surprised where some of the hosts stand, although you will have to tune in to see why we started this debate anyway. Twitter topics, Phone calls, E-mails and much more round out the show where EVERY gamer has a voice: Orange Lounge Radio

Episode 375 of Orange Lounge Radio - Taped LIVE on July 25th, 2010 at www.allgames.com
