

Bizzare Changes, Music Game Performances, Gran Turismo 5, Kinect, Marvel vs Capcom 3, 3DS Development, APB Relaunch, Nintendo prototypes and MORE on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice- Orange Lounge Radio!

The news this week sure feels like a downer when we get news of four different studios laying off and/or closing completley. That isn't a good way to start off the holidays... or is this sort of cycle normal? We get into our reactions. The blogs report that the music game downward trend continues, but obvioulsy as this is something near and dear to our hearts, we give some other perspective to think about. The Kinect is selling well... and some developers sure hope that 3DS games sell well to cover the cost!

In Part B tonight we talk about a very strange remake of Yars Revenge, and a very cool new pinball table from Marvel Comics. Then we take your phone calls, twitter topics, e-mails and MORE as we always do on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice-- Orange Lounge Radio!
