

Tonight our hosts dive into the abundance of Nintendo news out of their latest Nintendo Direct presentation. Some of us are excited about some different things, but a VOGNetwork live poll of the listeners shows some surprising results about what people really think. Also, rumors are out there that a TV show that was cancelled a few years ago could make a comeback. Does this delivery method idea change the face of cable TV, or are there too many players out there and too many subscriptions to pay for? We share our thoughts along with listener voices in the Foogles question of the week.

Also in the news:

- * Castle of Illusion Remake

- * System & Game Sales

- * Capcom Fighting Game Story modes

- * Edge Trademark
