

Could two companies with quite the reputation online be teaming up in the near future to bring video games to cable boxes? And what could this mean for the future of gaming? Our hosts discuss, with input from our LIVE chatters. Also, Shane is guesting on our show again, and brings with him talk about Pokemon and Skylanders, which he made Rob play for the first time. How did this gaming series with the multitude of extra figurines to buy go over with Rob? The answer might surprise you. We also hear what the listeners think of video games with figures in our Foogle Question of the Week.
