

The gaming fandom online is on fire this week with a lot of changes to popular streaming service Twitch.TV this week. Do we understand and possibly even agree with the changes? The answers might surprise you. During the call-in segment, we have a couple callers voice off on this controversial topic as well. Copyright law is definitely under examination this week on the program, but the law talk doesn't stop there, as we have an article about Sony being sued over claims they made with Killzone. Do we believe it's justified, or is it, in our opinion, a frivolous lawsuit? Tune in and join the conversation on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice!
