

A new Nintendo Indie Showcase showed off some new games making their way to the Switch over the next few months from the indie scene. As our roots are in music based games, there are a couple that certainly catch our eye, including one that seems to be part of a growing franchise. We also get into our gaming weeks, the news of the week, and take calls at the end of our show, including a call that talks about EVO. With the Street Fighter 6 Demo having hit Playstation consoles this week, there's lots of good news for fighting game fans. All this and more round out another week of the longest running video game podcast, Orange Lounge Radio!

Also in the News:

- * Monster Hunter Now coming from Niantic
- * Are Older Gamers being Included in Today's Games?
- * Sony to Acquire Firewalk
- * Playdate moves over 50,000 units

All this and more on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice-- Orange Lounge Radio!
