

A radical shift in editorial content at one major gaming news website has caused the Editor in Chief to resign. We discuss this shift, and the potential reasons behind it, as well as the rise of guides in what people look for online. This also brings us to a talk on how we consume headlines altogether, including a bit of a tangent on some of the biggest headlines of our time. All this and more make up another week of the longest running video game podcast, Orange Lounge Radio!

Also in the news:

- * Steam Family Sharing Update
- * Patient able to play video games with brain technology
- * Pokemon Website up for years is served DMCA
- * Sony PSVR2 Pauses Production

All this and more on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice-- Orange Lounge Radio!
