

We return after a two week live hiatus, and begin the show tonight spending some time talking about LOKIs personal life situation that impacted the show. The OLRmy sticks together to help and support him through this tough time, thank you all for your support. In gaming news, we talk about a controversial new ad that showed up in Wipeout HD this past week, and our thoughts on the appropriateness of ads in games that we pay for. Also, the XBOX is getting Paypal, but is it really something anyone would use? Best Buy is testing a new game pricing methodology in the middle of Utah, but why, and will it last? In Part B tonight, we tackle a pair of Guitar Hero 5 stories and then move right on in to talking about Facebook integration on the DSi. Is this integration everything people thought it would be, or is it just a silly throw-away feature? Of course before we get into calls, we talk about everyones favorite topic-- PORN! No really, porn on the playstation 3... in Japan anyway! All this and more including your chatroom antics, live calls, e-mails and much more on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice (and is one big family as evidenced tonight), Orange Lounge Radio!
