This was our first show back after President Cat made waves on various gaming blogs throughout the community. What did the hosts think about the whole situation? We make some comments on it all. The gaming news keeps on coming as we talk about the release of Cho Aniki Zero on the PSP, as well as rumors being squashed hopefully one final time about Blu-Ray on the 360. Is it okay that iPhone games sell extra lives in game? We take the opinions of our hosts and listeners! In Part B, we interview our friend John "Seg" Seggerson about UMLOUD, an upcoming charity event in San Francisco. More gaming news brings us info on an HD remake of Toki, and an awesome use for the Microsoft Surface. All this and MORE on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice, Orange Lounge Radio!
