After an unexpected break in the live shows thanks to H1N1 (yes, really), OLR returns with this live show from November 15th, 2009. We take some time to reflect on what it was like to have the pig flu, and then get to the games! In Part A tonight , we talk about broken street dates by Gamestop on some recent big releases. Is this a practice that we will see more of in the future? Our hosts have some strong opinions as do the live chatters. FINALLY, Final Fantasy 13 has a release date, and Modern Warfare 2 sets some big records to no ones surprise. In a nearly three and a half hour show, we move on in Part B to talk about 1 vs 100 season 2, as well as an interesting new iPhone game that lets you make FIRE! Moonwalker is headed to the virtual console, but is it time for a new kind of Michael Jackson video game? We brainstorm with our listeners on this and more topics. All this and your e-mails, chatroom antics, twitter topics and so much more on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice: Orange Lounge Radio!
