On this weeks episode of OLR, we talk about a glitch that could be a potential huge exploit for the XBOX Live Arcade.. and you won't believe what game enables it! How long until they patch that one? Well, a Red Steel 3 is rumored for the Wii, as is yet another dedicated band Guitar Hero game. Both of them do not sound quite as awesome as a new 2D Castlevania, however. AWESOME! Less awesome? Class action lawsuits over the PS3? Well... maybe this one is deserved. We will see what the chatters think about that... In Part B tonight-- LISTLESS! What Vs. Capcom game should they make next? Also big Bungie news, FFV & FFVI remake rumors, Red Faction movie news, Reflec Beat and yes... Super Strip Fighter. All this and MORE including chatroom antics, phone calls, e-mails, twitter topics, facebook messages, myspace... oh just kidding who uses myspace any more? All on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice-- Orange Lounge Radio!
