3D BluRay on the PS3, Zuma Blitz, 3DS Anti-Piracy, Hulu Plus, Sonic Colors, Kid Icarus 3DS, Mega Man Universe, 1 vs 100 cancelled and MORE this week on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice - Orange Lounge Radio

One of our hosts is on drugs this week-- but we think the entire gaming industry might be on some as well. How is Lokis Super Mario Nursery coming? Jamie and Rob attend CA Extreme and play lots of ol school video games and pinball, which inspires the classic game of the week. It might also be inspiring a listener to make their own version of it. RealID comes up yet again, but no really guys it is important! Are we going to have to trek to the land of gang violence to play the Kinect, or would we rather go to a Macys? Twitter topics include and a mailbag question catches Rob totally off guard.
