Tokyo Game Show took place this past week, where Sony delivered a press conference giving game updates including popular Japanese franchises such as Monster Hunter. How did we feel about the conference and how it compares to E3? We discuss live with our chatters, then get into other news of the week which includes a heated debate between the creators of Fortnite and PlayerUnknown Battlegrounds. Is PUBG trying to "claim" a genre, or have they been misunderstood by the gamers and their social media feeds everywhere?

Also in the news:

* Steam Review system changes

* iOS 11 means some apps are no more, including Flappy Bird

* USB cameras for Xbox One Streaming

* Changes at The Chinese Room, developers of Dear Esther
