

Cyberpunk 2077 released this week, but several bugs are present in the game which is letting the memes fly online. What did Loki, who was really excited about the games release think about the game? Are the bugs truly ruining the game, or are they becoming "features" of their own. Have we forgiven buggy games in the past that have gone on to become great games? We talk about all this and more including MANY announcements and trailers from The Game Awards that happened this week.
